ADVERTISING IN MAGAZINE „MASONRY AND CONSTRUCTION“

Dear,

A new issue of the magazine „Masonry and Construction“ will be released in late December 2020.

Some of You are our longtime associates who advertise their companies and products in our magazine for many years now.

I hope that the interest for advertising will be high in this issue, as well.

We invite those who have not used this opportunity so far, and are interested, to join our team and our magazine.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING

Terms are the same as they were in previous years.

Therefore, the whole internal page will be charged 100€ and the external one 200€.

Half of the internal page is 50€.

Format 16x24 cm

Please submit Your requests not later than 15th of December 2020.

our advertising contributes to the publication of a unique magazine with topics that are focused on connecting relevant professions related to natural stone.

The magazine is published in a printed release, as well in an online one, and it's been given to all of the relevant stakeholders, Croatian Scientific and University library, faculties of Civil Engineering and faculties of Mining in Croatia, as well as everyone from school's mailing list and every participant of the Symposium.

We all share the same interest: to maintain the magazine „Masonry and Construction“ a place where variant stone professions will be confronted, as well as every other profession and inclined supplier.

Please send Your ads suggestions to these addresses:
